The Hidden Poetry of El Cerrito 3rd in a series

Saturday, June 18 at 10 am.

Join Jenny Hammer and Tim Aaronson on this third hike in search of poetry. We will be in search of hidden poems written by eight local poets. The route will take us by three creeks and four parks as we wend our way on sidewalks, paved paths, and dirt paths. See some spectacular wildflowers. Bring a GPS device if you have one. Find out what local poets have been writing and read a selected poem from each. This is a ramble, not a race. No steep climbs, but some gradual inclines. This hike is sponsored by El Cerrito Trail Trekkers and the El Cerrito Arts and Culture Commission. The coordinates of the cached poetry will be provided at the beginning of the hike and will be available on the El Cerrito Trail Trekkers website thereafter. Be prepared to read aloud! Dogs on leash are welcome. Walking shoes and water recommended. Questions? Contact Jenny, jhammer13@earthlink.net or 524-1590.

Meet at Baxter Creek Gateway Park on San Pablo Ave. just north of Conlon. 3 hrs.
